

SEMINAR ON THE INCLUSION OF ALLOPHONE PUPILS IN THE FRENCH/SWEDISH – LANGUAGE SCHOOL SYSTEM(S)

Thursday, April 23rd 2015

Uppsala University
Blåsenhus
Von Kraemers allé 1

Keynote speaker: Brigitte CERVONI, Inspector of the French Ministry of Education, Versailles' educational authority

Target audience: all educational professionals involved in the inclusion of allophone pupils in the Swedish-language school system. Hosted by Uppsala University's Centre for Professional Development and Internationalisation in Schools and the Institut Français de Suède.

Working language: English.

The main goal of the workshops is to generate fruitful debates about French and Swedish practices as far as the inclusion of allophone pupils is concerned.

09H00 – 12H00

Screening of the film « La Cour de Babel » (room 10:K102)

Discussion about the issues brought up by the film

- How to deal with the heterogeneity of allophone pupils?
- Which status for the pupils' mother tongues?
- How to get allophone parents involved in their children's schooling?
- How to enable these pupils to assimilate the values of the "French secular and republican school"?

12H00 – 13H00: lunch buffet

13H00 – 14H00: Institutional framework and strategic management (room 12:004)

- Which schooling procedures for allophone pupils with respect to their specific needs and their profiles?
- Which schooling programs for allophone pupils within the educational system?
- Which factors foster the inclusion of allophone pupils in the educational system?
- How to assess the effectiveness of the existing framework?

14H00 – 15H00 : Human resources

- Which assignment procedures for the teachers?
- Which training for the teachers?
- How to evaluate the teachers' training?

15H00 – 15H30: coffee break

15H30 – 16H30: Educational material

- Which specific tools are available?
- Which tools are used to assess the students' skills in their mother tongue upon their arrival in France/Sweden?
- Which good practices should be encouraged ?

16H30 – 17H00: conclusions.