

The cultural department of the Institut français de Suède annually opens a call for projects. The call is initiated in order to support independent projects aligning with the objectives of the Institute.

This 2017 call is focused around mobility support both for French artists towards Sweden and for the mobility for Swedish arts professionals towards France.

The maximum funding given for each project is 1000 euros.

Who can apply? And how does this work?

1. Cultural professionals, art curators, art directors and programmers based in Sweden can apply for research in France, develop a cultural project set up in Sweden and linked to France or for professional meetings in France.
2. Swedish institutions, festivals, organizations and museums can apply to invite or involve French artists to festivals, performances, showcases, exhibitions, etc. in Sweden.

To apply:

You have until January 14th, to apply for the program of cultural mobility from Sweden to France. Please, click here.

You have until January 14th, to apply for the program of cultural mobility from France to Sweden, by Please, click here.

Objectives of the mobility program:

All projects must help French artists or authors to meet new audiences, create new opportunities and / or develop professional networks in Sweden.